

Eating Disorders Review

Price: Full - $580 / Short - $485
Register: (866) 611-5599 or www.AmericanSeminar.com
Special Association accreditation may vary. See website.*

Eating Disorders - Ellen S. Rome, MD

Identify children and adolescents with a possible eating disorder; Select appropriate laboratory tests for children and adolescents suspected of having an eating disorder; Differentiate between anorexia nervosa, bulimia nervosa, and binge-eating disorder; List the criteria for hospital admission for children and adolescents with an eating disorder; Explain the association between bone health and eating disorders.

PD 62 - 40

Update on the Adolescent - Carol Peterson, PhD and Perry D. Hoffman, PhD

Use diagnostic criteria to identify patients with anorexia nervosa and bulimia nervosa; Maximize the value of cognitive behavioral therapy for patients with eating disorders; Optimize the use of family-based treatment for patients with eating disorders; Anticipate emotions that family members of individuals with borderline personality disorder may experience; Explain the benefits of the Family Connections program to family members of patients with borderline personality disorder.

PG 06 - 02

Eating Disorders/Coherent Breathing - Guido Frank, MD and Patricia Gerbarg, MD

Identify brain regions and neurotransmitter receptors relevant to eating disorders; Recognize the effects of eating disorders on the volume of gray matter and the fiber connectivity of white matter in the brain; Assess data on the use of neurocomputational models and genetic analyses in research on eating disorders; Explain the role of the vagus nerve in voluntarily regulated breathing practices; Employ coherent breathing in the treatment of chronic disorders such as generalized anxiety, schizophrenia, and inflammatory bowel disease. PY041

PG 06 - 12

Family-Based Therapy for Eating Disorders: A Pediatrician's Perspective - Rebecka Peebles, MD

Contrast the presentation of eating disorders in children with that in adults; Identify eating disorders in children based on criteria in the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (Fifth Edition); Explain to parents the importance of early intervention for eating disorders; Counsel parents about refeeding and the importance of reaching daily calorie goals; Discuss basic principles of family-based treatment for eating disorders. PY043

PG 06 - 14

A Family-Based Approach to Eating Disorders: Case Studies - Tammy Colley-Ogden, CTRS

Describe the Maudsley method of family-based therapy; Guide patients and family members through the phases of the Maudsley method; Explain Treasure's animal metaphors that refer to caregiving and parenting styles; Counsel parents about meal preparation and refeeding a malnourished child; Apply the Maudsley method to patients with restrictive eating due to ulcerative colitis or avoidant/restrictive food intake disorder.

PG 06 - 20